DON'T DELAY

Final make-up, printing, binding, and delivery of the magazine to the postoffice was formerly done in a week; it now takes almost three. Delivery by the postoffice has slowed down. This is not the fault of any individual group but rather of the changed conditions of the times. When a program or announcement of a coming event is ready, send it at once; don't delay.

A REQUEST

Please do not expect an acknowledgment from T.A.O. for photographs or other materials sent for publication in these pages; subscription and advertising rates will both be forced up if money has to be spent for anything but the production of the magazine. Thanks to unprecedented national stupidity and squandery, no money is available here for any of the courtesies that once made life so enjoyable.
